

I listen to K-LOVE radio station in Tucson. It is important to me that I be able to listen to have this healthy alternative as a opposed to sometimes more negative media. The public benefits by hearing that they are being prayed for, by hearing counseling messages and Christian music. Eveyrone who listens knows that they are not alone. For this reason, I believe our community is a better place because we have this option on our air waves.